San Antonio Botanical Garden Launches New Website

From classes and special events to art installations and new plants, life is always in full bloom at the San Antonio Botanical Garden

SAN ANTONIO (Friday, March 6, 2020) – The San Antonio Botanical Garden, a nonprofit organization, inspires people to connect with the plant world and understand the importance of plants in our lives, is proud to announce the launch of its new website, sabot.org. The new site features a modern design, improved navigation and functionality and easy access to information for planning your next visit to the Botanical Garden.

This new website offers an intuitive and user-centric experience both on the desktop and mobile responsive versions. New features include an online ticketing option to purchase general admission tickets and a new events calendar to help visitors discover the variety of special events, exhibits and classes taking place at the Botanical Garden. Whether you are looking to immerse yourself in the beauty of plants, watch birds, learn a new skill or treat the kids to imaginative outdoor play, the Botanical Garden has something for everyone.

“We are thrilled to debut our new website and invite our members, donors, board members, tourists and the San Antonio community to visit the site and experience it’s user-friendly capabilities,” said Sabina Carr, CEO, San Antonio Botanical Garden.

The Botanical Garden’s website will be updated on a regular basis with the latest happenings blooming all year-round. Don’t miss out and sign up to receive email updates by visiting sabot.org.
